

HALCYON'S ENTRY POLICY

Each horse show has a closing date for entries specified on the front cover of the prize list. Entries received on or before that date are considered a "pre-entry". After that date and up to noon on the Thursday before each show, entries are accepted and are considered to be a "late entry" and will be subject to a $15 late fee. From that point on, entries are considered to be post entries and will be charged a $25 post entry fee. There is no reason for any exhibitor to subject themselves to these fees, as there is absolutely no fee to scratch. We only request the courtesy of a phone call or e-mail by notifying us of your scratch.

Pre-entries must have all USEF numbers for the horse, owner, rider and trainer in order to be processed. Incomplete entries will be charged the $15 late fee regardless of their date of receipt.
